BRIAN WHIPPLE WITH CENTRAL UTAH COUNSELING: APPROVAL OF BOUNDARY LINE AGREEMENT FOR INSTALLATION OF A FENCE

Brian Whipple explains that the counseling center was built ten years ago, and the building is owned by Sanpete County through the Municipal Building Authority. A fence needs to be put up for the safety of the clients at the counseling center. There are boundary issues on this property, so a surveyor was hired. A few years ago, the city tried to resolve the boundary problem, but nothing was done legally to correct it. The surveyor suggested signing a boundary line agreement. Craig Oberg has agreed to the proposed agreement. The Gordon's property is not harmed by this agreement. The fence is in place, and follows the lines in the agreement that will be signed today. Motion is made by Trustee Anderson to approve the signature of the president on the boundary line agreement. The motion is seconded by Trustee Inouye, and the motion passes.
